

Registered Nurse
ANDREA

“I don't want to work anywhere else.”

“You are our angel,” wrote the parents whose baby spent four months in Andrea's care in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) at Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital.

“That touched my heart and brought tears to my eyes,” says Andrea, who has cared for the hospital's youngest and tiniest patients for more than 10 years.

“We take care of these babies as if they were our own,” Andrea says. “There is a culture of safety and patient- and family-centered care. Everything is a team effort. The most satisfying part is seeing these babies go home.”

Working with the highly skilled and experienced NICU team to help babies and families thrive is an honor and a joy for Andrea.

“I consider our NICU at Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital to be the best,” Andrea says with pride.
